

RIVERDALE MUN 2023

The GECCS Model United Nations (MUN) Club left an indelible mark at the Riverdale MUN 2023, held in Aurangabad from 22nd to 23rd, April 2023. A delegation of six delegates showcased exceptional diplomatic prowess, earning accolades that underscored their commitment to excellence.

In a triumph for the club, Sakshi Sharma emerged as the Best Delegate in the AIPPM committee, demonstrating a keen understanding of complex global issues. Anurang Sarda's stellar performance in DISEC secured him the coveted title of Best Delegate, while Pankaj Navale's outstanding contributions in AIPPM earned him a well-deserved Special Mention Award.

Adding to the pride, two club members, Samey Lyngrah and Pushkar Bhande, assumed significant roles at the conference as Chairperson of the WHO committee and Head of IP, respectively. Their leadership exemplified the club's dedication to nurturing well-rounded individuals capable of influencing global discourse.

The success at Riverdale MUN 2023 not only showcased GECCS MUN Club's commitment to excellence but also affirmed its place as a breeding ground for future leaders in international diplomacy.

Honesty. Honour. Humility.
