

GMC CONFERENCE 2024

1st National Edition

“ A kinship of knowledge with kindness. “

G D I

GENERAL DELEGATE INFORMATION

MUN REFUGEE CHALLENGE

Supporting

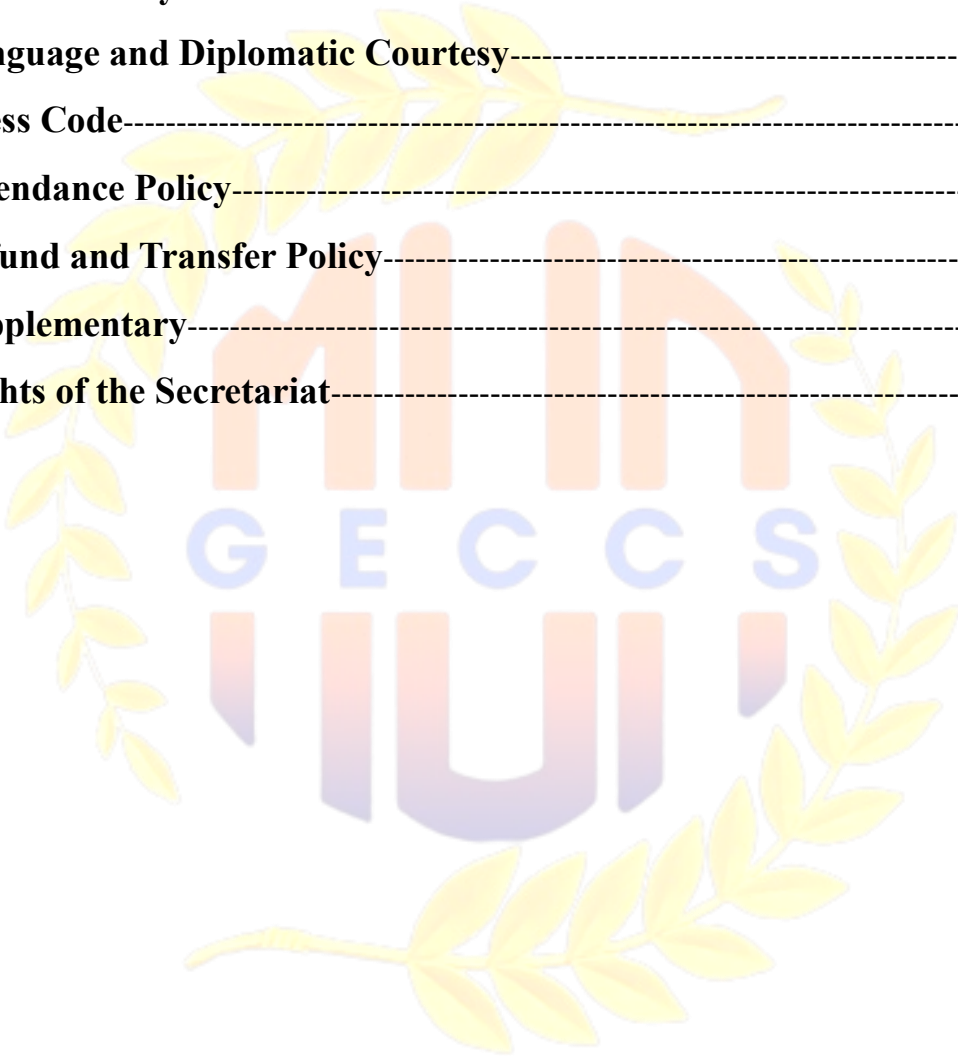

UNHCR
The UN Refugee Agency

GENERAL DELEGATE INFORMATION

GMC Conference 2024: 1st National Edition

INDEX

General Policy -----	(3)
Language and Diplomatic Courtesy -----	(3)
Dress Code -----	(4)
Attendance Policy -----	(4)
Refund and Transfer Policy -----	(4)
Supplementary -----	(4)
Rights of the Secretariat -----	(5)

GENERAL POLICY

1. The Organizing Heads of the Government College of Engineering, Chhatrapati Sambhajanagar Model United Nations Club, which includes the Secretary General and the Director General, reserve the right to make exceptions to any conference or general policy that rules for the 1st National Edition of GECCS MUN Club (hereafter referred to as 'GMC'), without any prior notice.
2. The GMC General Secretariat shall not be held accountable for any misinterpretations or incorrect statements made by individuals, members, or students outside of the GMC Secretariat 2023-2024, concerning exceptions that pertain to the conference's fees or policies.
3. The GMC Senior Secretariat reserves the exclusive right to modify the allocation framework for countries, committees, and portfolios. The assignment of countries and committees/portfolios remains the sole privilege of the GMC Senior Secretariat, emphasizing their authority over these decisions.

LANGUAGE & DIPLOMATIC COURTESY

1. English (Both American and British) is designated as the official and operational language of the conference. Should a delegate wish to submit a document or any section thereof in a non-English language, the Chairperson/President/Moderator/Director/Chief of the respective committee reserves the right to allow its presentation provided it is accompanied by a comprehensive English translation for distribution to all committee members.
2. An exception to the aforementioned language policy is made only for the All-India Political Parties Meet (AIPPM) Committee, which operates as a bilingual forum. In this context, delegates are permitted to communicate in both the English and the Hindi Language.
3. Delegates are required to uphold diplomatic decorum while addressing fellow committee members and the presiding authorities. It is mandatory for delegates to refer to each other in third-person during discussions, so as to maintain formality and respect.
4. Delegates must demonstrate respect and courtesy towards the Organizing Committee's members and their fellow delegates at all times. The Chairperson/President/Moderator/Director/Chief of the committee will enforce decorum strictly, addressing any deviations from this conduct immediately. Delegates who perceive a lack of respect towards themselves are encouraged to consult with the assigned authority, who will take necessary corrective measures.
5. The conference maintains a strict policy against the use of slang, informal language, slander, or any form of discourteous speech. Such behavior will not be tolerated under any circumstances.

DRESS CODE

1. For Day 1 of the Conference, the Dress Code shall be Indian Traditional.
2. For Day 2 and Day 3 of the Conference, the Dress Code shall be Western Business Formals/ Semi Formals.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

1. Delegates are required to attend all designated online sessions that are prepared by the committee's high authorities. Certificates of Participation will be issued exclusively to delegates who achieve a minimum attendance of 75% of all these sessions (both offline and online). The Executive Board will consistently monitor and record attendance to ensure compliance.
2. Maintaining an attendance rate of at least 75% is a prerequisite for eligibility for any awards at the conference's conclusion. Non-compliance with this attendance requirement will result in the participant being ineligible for any award consideration.

REFUND & TRANSFER POLICY

1. Conference fees, once remitted, are non-refundable under any circumstances. Should a delegate choose to withdraw from the conference, there will be no reimbursement for any registration fees previously paid.
2. For special cases that are recognized by the Senior Secretariat as extraordinary, a refund of 75% shall be permitted to the delegate if informed 2 weeks prior the commencement of the conference.
3. The Delegate Tickets acquired for GMC Conference 2024 are strictly non-transferable. Any individual discovered impersonating a registered delegate will face strict consequences, including exclusion from subsequent committee sessions.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. The Senior Secretariat retains the authority to expel delegates from the Conference for misconduct. Severe violations by any delegate will result in their immediate removal and that of their delegation from the Conference, with no entitlement to a refund.
2. The expulsion of a delegate from the conference will result in their delegation's automatic ineligibility for awards. The Senior Secretariat has the exclusive right to establish norms for acceptable behavior at the Conference. It takes issues of disrespect towards delegates, members of the International Press Corps, General Secretariat members, Conference personnel, Executive Board members, volunteers, or any affiliates of GMC Conference 2024 with utmost seriousness.

3. Photographs, videos, and any other audio/visual materials captured during GMC Conference 2024 that feature any delegates may be utilized and disseminated by the organizers of GECCS MUN Club for promotional activities.
4. The age limit for participation in GMC Conference 2024 is capped at 28 years.
5. Completing the registration process and accepting the policies online is considered a digital agreement, binding registrants to adhere to the stipulated policies.

SENIOR SECRETARIAT PRIVILEGES

1. The GMC Senior Secretariat retains the discretion to amend, revise, or modify any of the conference policies outlined in this document without any prior notification.
2. The verdicts rendered by the Secretary General concerning all matters shall be conclusive and obligatory.

We express our gratitude for your cooperation and invite you to contact us at gmconferenceofficial@gmail.com should you have any inquiries or issues.

Best Regards,

The Organizing Committee

GMC Conference 2024.