

YOUTH PARLIAMENT 2022

The 'Abhirup Yuva Sansad' (Mock Youth Parliament) program, organized by the voluntary movement 'Yuvak Biradari (Bharat),' aimed at enhancing the leadership and potential of the youth, was conducted to foster personality development. Invited to participate, the GECCS MUN Club and UDAAN Club swiftly formed a team of 20 members, supported by faculty advisors Prof. Arjumand Khan and Dr. S.M. Shinde. The competition, held on December 14th, featured teams from various regions of Marathwada. Despite being newcomers, GECCS's team showcased confidence and excellence in their performances, maintaining decorum throughout.

AWARDS & RECOGNITION :

1. GECCS COLLEGE TEAM - RUNNER-UP
2. SAKSHI SHARMA - BEST PARLIAMENTARIAN AWARD

The experience at the competition was transformative, providing invaluable insights into parliamentary practices and public speaking. The team's commitment and dedication reflected in their success, instilling a sense of pride and accomplishment for GECCS. The event not only brought accolades but also served as a platform for continuous improvement and future participation in similar competitions.
